OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Blessed Trinity Parish is an open and welcoming Catholic community, centered in the Eucharist and celebrating God's gift of Diversity. We bring God's love to one another and support one another in responding to the challenge of living the Gospel. We strive to deepen participation and encourage all parishioners to take ownership for the everyday life of their church, especially Spiritual Growth, Community Life, the Building of a Just Society, and Service to All God's People.

Psalm 118: This Is the Day

Refrain

This is the day the Lord has made; let us re-joice and be glad.

This is the day the Lord has made; let us re-joice and be glad.

Text: Psalm 118, refrain trans. @ 1969, ICEL; verses @ Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, alt. Music: Michael Joncas, @1981, 1982, Jan Michael Joncas Trust, Publ. by OCP Publ.

Thank You to So Many

They say you should never thank people publicly because you're going to forget to say someone's name. Well, I don't want the rest of the people who did things for Holy Week to be forgotten so here goes.

Thanks to Dee Ialacci, Mary Cavoli and Diane Leciejewski for baking bread for Palm Sunday. Katie also baked bread by herself for Holy Thursday.

Thanks to Phil Devaty for setting up the sound system and to Terry Gorges and John Deighton for helping me move it back into the garage.

Thanks to Bill McJunkin who presented the oil of catechumens at the Holy Thursday Mass, to Stephen Povlis who presented the oil of the sick and to Carlos Delgado who presented the holy chrism. Great job, gentlemen!

Thanks to Steve and Anne Suding for training the servers for Holy Thursday, for setting up chairs for the washing of the feet, for planning and executing the setting of "the table" during the offertory and for washing all those towels. The liturgy was so moving that the Holy Spirit swept Eve Bertoni off her feet.

Thanks to Deacon Dick for a beautiful Holy Thursday homily. It moved so many people to get their feet washed. And thanks for going downtown to pick up the oils for us.

Thanks to all of you who showed up Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. What a turnout. And thanks for doing your part all three days. I got an email from Steve Flynn who said he had to attend an 8:00am Mass at the cathedral Easter morning. No one sang! How blessed we are to understand why we come to church.

Thanks to our Holy Thursday servers, Abby Konjura, Nate Dubois, and Eve Bertoni. They were kept busy throughout the liturgy.

Thanks again to Phil Devaty for getting the fire permit from the fire department. And thanks to Phil and Chris Malinowski for making the primal fire for the Easter vigil.

Thanks to Carlos Delgado, Eve and Steve and Ann for serving the vigil Mass. They had lots to do, from lighting candles to turning on and off the baptismal font.

Thanks to Marilyn Lombardo, Sr. Carolyn Marshall and Kathy Ruppe who baked great for Easter. And thanks to Katie for bringing over the bulletins for distribution. I completely forgot.

Thanks to Laura Fibbi for preparing LJ Shorbatli for baptism.

Thanks to Duane Abarca and Margie Pavone for leading us in the Exultet. Thanks to our lectors who made the Scriptures come alive: Lynna Metricin, Jane Link, Joyce Humel, Katie Corbett, Jean Plato, Sr. Eilis McCulloh and Jane Sposky.

Thanks to our wonderful music ministry; musicians Johnny Werblak on percussion, Walt Zacharias on the bass, Janet Dubas on the flute, Jim McShane on the keyboard and our music minister Sonia Hu who prepared them all.

Thanks to our bell choir. Rita Matowics, Grace Samarin, Teresa Riedel, Chuck Nusbaum, Jackie Capasso and again Johnny Werblak. The bells added so much beauty to our song.

Thanks to all the cantors during these three days and to all the members of our choir who spent hours and hours rehearsing: Alexandra Belcher, Duane Abarca, Judy Beercheck, Bob Farmerie (currently not active due to surgery), Chris Hearn, Michael Jeffries (will rejoin soon), Laura Kuhn (currently not active, family obligations), Carol Masek, Chris McAvinue, Robert Miller, Rosemary Miller, Ginger Needham, Anna Marie Parker, Margie Pavone, Mike Reiling (recovering from illness), Dottie Schultz, Anne Suding, Pat Thacker, Teri Thayer, Jean Plato, Mary Filipic, Barbara Rowley, Thomas Heim, Hannah McMonagle, Stephen Suding.

Other jobs were people who put out orange cones, purchase of flowers, decorating the altar, putting those paper wax catchers on the candles, taping extension cords, etc.

Caring Corner

We all have friends and family who live all over and keep in touch via social media. Their posts are usually upbeat and positive, but sometimes heavier topics come up. When a friend who lives far away loses a loved one, social media posts often seem inadequate. That's when a resource like Stephen Ministry's Journeying through Grief might help. These short books are sent to people four times during the first year after the loss of a loved one. They guide the reader through the grief journey, sharing helpful insights about grief, biblical truths, and stories that provide comfort and reassurance. If you or someone you know might benefit from these books, please contact one of our Stephen Leaders for copies.

Centering Prayer Introductory Program Planned for May 14

Do you seek the still, quiet voice of God? The Centering Prayer Introductory Program will help us to understand the Indwelling Presence of God within each of us and our intimate relationship with that Presence. The method of Centering Prayer will be presented. We will explore the benefits of Centering Prayer in ordinary life and experience two periods of Centering Prayer practice. All are welcome to attend! The program will be presented on May 14th in the Joseph Center, 4370 W. 140 St. Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. The program is scheduled 9 a.m. – noon. The program will be presented by experienced practitioners of Centering Prayer who are commissioned to present the program by Contemplative Outreach, Ltd. (www.contemplativeoutreach.org.) For more information or to sign up, please leave your name & phone with the office at Blessed Trinity Parish: 216.671.5890 or www.office@blessedtrinitycleveland.org.
